

International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights in Armed Conflicts
An adequate response to contemporary challenges?

September 30 – October 1, 2013

Beijing Conference Room, RWI, Lund, Sweden

Conference Programme

Monday, 30 September, 2013

- 9.00-9.30            Registration and coffee
- 9.30-10.00        Opening
- Marie Tuma, Director, RWI
Welcoming remarks
- Christina Johnsson, Head of the Academic Department, RWI
Introductory remarks
- 10.00-10.45      Session 1: Women, Peace and Security
- Sukehiro Hasegawa, Professor, Former UN Special Representative of the Secretary General for East Timor
Need for the integration of humanitarian and national security concerns – lessons learned from the Kibeho incident in Rwanda
- Suchada Kulawat, Policy Officer, Policy, Planning and Coordination
Unit. Office of the Under-Secretary General, UN
Peace and Security: Rethinking Sexual and Gender-Based Violence in Armed Conflicts
- Göran Melander, Professor Emeritus, RWI
Resolution 1325
- Chair: Lars Plum, Deputy State Prosecutor at the Special
International Crimes Office in Denmark
- 10.45-11.15      Coffee/tea break
- 11.15-12.15      Open Discussions

- 12.30–14.00 Lunch at “Mat och Destillat”
- 14.00-15.00 Session 2: Sexual and Gender-based Violence in Armed Conflicts
- Margot Wallström, Chair of the Lund University Board, Former UN Special Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict
Another kind of war – on conflict-related sexual violence
- Brigida M. Pastor, Spanish National Research Council (CSIC), Madrid
Masculinity and children in post-war conflict
- Lars Plum, Deputy State Prosecutor at the Special International Crimes Office in Denmark
The Role of the Prosecutor in Ensuring Prosecution and punishment of perpetrators of Sexual and gender-based violence in armed conflicts
- Miriam Estrada-Castillo, Visiting Professor, RWI
International Law and Sexual Violence in Conflict: Failures and Challenges
- Chair: Sukehiro Hasegawa, Professor, Former UN Special Representative of the Secretary General for East Timor
- 15.00-15.30 Coffee/tea break
- 15.30-16.30 Open Discussions
- 17.15-18.30 Public Panel Debate
- Keynote Speakers:
- Margot Wallström, Chair of the Lund University Board, Former UN Special Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict
Another kind of war – on conflict-related sexual violence
- Sukehiro Hasegawa, Professor, Former UN Special Representative of the Secretary General for East Timor
Unintended humanitarian consequences of military intervention aimed at democratization of the Somali society
- Almiro Rodrigues, Judge at the Constitutional Court of Kosovo
Massive violations character and its implications as a challenge for International Human Rights Law and International Humanitarian Law
- Moderator: Alejandro Fuentes, Senior Researcher, RWI
- 19.00 Welcome Dinner at “Klostergatans Vin och Delikatess”

Tuesday, 1 October, 2013

9.30-10.30

Session 3: War on Terror and Contemporary Challenges for IHRL and IHL

Gregor Noll, Professor of International Law, Torsten and Ragnar Söderberg Foundations Chair in Commemoration of Samuel Pufendorf, Faculty of Law, Lund University
Weaponising Neurotechnology: Challenges to IHL

Ebrahim Afsah, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen
Counter-Terrorism and the Criminalisation of Humanitarian Action

Amin Parsa, Doctoral Student, Faculty of Law, Lund University
Targeting in the US counterinsurgency strategy

Markus Gunneflo, Doctoral Student, Faculty of Law, Lund University
Why Human Rights Fail to Protect in Targeted Killing

Chair: Almiro Rodrigues, Judge at the Constitutional Court of Kosovo

10.30-11.00

Coffee/tea break

11.00-12.00

Open Discussions

12.15-13.15

Lunch at restaurant "Lundia"

13.15-14.00

Session 4: War on Terror and Contemporary Challenges for IHRL and IHL (continuation)

Almiro Rodrigues, Judge at the Constitutional Court of Kosovo
Massive violations character and its implications as a challenge for International Human Rights Law and International Humanitarian Law

Marie Tuma, Director, RWI
Presentation's title to be confirmed

Miriam Estrada-Castillo, Visiting Professor, RWI
UN and the Objective Results on the War on Terror

Chair: Suchada Kulawat, Policy Officer, Policy, Planning and Coordinator Unit. Office of the Under-Secretary General, UN

14.00-14.30

Coffee/tea break

14.30-15.30

Open Discussions

15.30-16.00

Closing Remarks

Marie Tuma, Director, RWI
Christina Johnsson, Head of the Academic Department, RWI