

JORNADA THEORIA CUM PRAXI

ENLIGHTENMENT, PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY AND VALUES

30th November 2012

11:30 Public presentation of ENGLOBE :
Günther Lottes and Iwan D'Aprile (Universität Potsdam)

12:00–14:00 Chair: Concha Roldán (IFS, CSIC)

Roberto R. Aramayo (IFS, CSIC): Crises and Revolutions: Their interdependence in the classic authors of philosophy (Rousseau, Kant, Tocqueville, Cassirer & Arendt)

Darina Martykánová (EHES, Paris): Production and Circulation of Knowledge at a Global Level: A theoretical approximation

Armando Menéndez (Universidad de Oviedo): What is the Use of Values for Social Debates?

15: 30 Martina Becker (Middle East Technical University of Ankara): Contingencies of Concept Formation: Meanings of Art in the Early Turkish Republic

16:00 Moira Bernardoni (Middle East Technical University of Ankara): Historicizing Graffiti and Detecting the Global in Istanbul: The strategic value of space

16: 30 Christoph Senft (Universidade de Coimbra): Towards Transmodern Literary Historiography - Local Pasts and Global Designs in Contemporary Indian English Fiction (2001-2010)

17:00 Coffee break

17: 30 Nic Miller (Universität Potsdam): American Amazons in the Enlightenment: The blurred nature of labels

18:00 Alexandre Netchaev (Universität Potsdam): The Attempt of the English Working Class to be Included in Politics in the 1790s

18:30 Lutz Fricke (TU Berlin): Two Problems with Narratives of the Self

19:00 Closure Act

Organised by "Enlightenment and Global History" (Marie Curie FP7-PEOPLE-2007-1-1-ITN) and "Filosofía de la historia y valores en la Europa del siglo XIX" (FFI2008-04287)

Sala Menéndez Pidal (C/ Albasanz, 26-28, 28037 Madrid)